Subject : First Laravel certified company in India | WebOccult Technologies Pvt. Ltd.

Body:

Dear Sir / Ma'am,

I hope this email finds you well.

WebOccult Technologies is very delighted to share the news of triumph with you all that we are the first company in India and in the first 20 companies globally, to be recognized as an official Laravel Certified Company.

We passed the prestigious laravel certification because:

- We demonstrated our expertise in building complex web applications with Laravel
- We're up to date with the Laravel versions
- We know and apply all the best practices in the Laravel community
- We have successfully completed projects in Laravel

We have a large community of developers and an entire ecosystem around Laravel that helps us create client-satisfactory products. Our focus on every detail and expertise in using Laravel advancements has made us a leading Laravel development company in a short time.

If you're considering building your next web application with Laravel or find our services important to you, do drop us an email. We're glad to put our experience to contribute in your business.

Thank you and Have a nice day.

Regards
